Chapter 1 by lillian ceryis

Who would have thought this would happen. There she lied and there she died. I guess karma is real after all.

Her lies got her into so much trouble I'm sure this was a right thing to do, but who would have thought I would become a murderer. I guess her, but lies were never real.

I guess no one could suspect me. Little ten year old me with blood on her hands and blood on her dress. No one would think it was me. Who would think the sweetest person you will ever meet would commit a sin. Oh, now I remember, I guess she did, but who would believe six year old Quinn. Well, I believe no one now. A dead girl can't speak.
